
One observation per condition/task; no uncertainty intervals. Early failure can have low distance. No baseline probe exists for T1.